Tech Travel Tips

Update and back up your devices so you are not vulnerable to cyberattacks.

Make sure your passwords are strong and complex to keep your data secure.

Use your own portable charger, cords, and power block to avoid "juice jacking."

Limit the amount of devices you travel with so you also limit the risks.

Check and change your privacy and security settings on apps to limit who can access your information.

it.rutgers.edu/phishbowl

R RUTGERS IT