September 2025

Use a three-digit code with Duo starting October 7

Starting October 7, you will be asked to enter a three-digit code that appears in your web browser when accessing web-based Rutgers systems, including Canvas, myRutgers, Rutgers Connect, ScarletMail, Zoom, and others. Learn more about this update to Duo.

Using AI responsibly at Rutgers

As AI tools become more common, you may have questions about using them for Rutgers work. The AI guidance page provides information about ensuring academic integrity, protecting Rutgers data, and more.

Discover the Policy Library widget on myRutgers

The Policy Library widget on your myRutgers dashboard makes it easy to stay informed about hundreds of university policies. View recent updates, search for specific policies, or browse current ones. Visit the Rutgers IT Help portal to manage dashboard widgets on the web or mobile app.

Stay current with Rutgers tech

Check out the Rutgers IT Newsroom for the latest on technology at Rutgers—including service updates, security guidance, and tips to help you make the most of tech at the university.

Visit it.rutgers.edu for information and resources about technology services and support at Rutgers. Questions or comments about this e-newsletter? Email itcomm@rutgers.edu.
